

Napier Park Promotes Nadja Marcoz to Partner

New York – January 14, 2020 – Napier Park Global Capital (“Napier Park”), an alternative asset management platform with more than $14 billion in assets under management, today announced that Nadja Marcoz was named a Partner of the firm. Marcoz is based in Napier Park’s New York office.

“Nadja is a true culture carrier at Napier Park and we could not be more enthusiastic to call her a Partner,” said Jim O’Brien, Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer of Napier Park. “Her tireless work ethic, ability to continuously adapt and long-standing institutional relationships have contributed meaningfully to the growth and diversification of our alternative credit platform.”

Jonathan Dorfman, Senior Managing Partner and Chief Investment Officer at Napier Park, added, “In addition to Nadja’s ability to develop and expand mandates from sophisticated public pension plans and other institutional investors, she is a true ambassador for the industry as a whole both internally and externally and always leads by example. We look forward to her continued success.”

Marcoz said, “I am honored to serve as a part of this close-knit, collaborative team that has worked tirelessly each day to build Napier Park into what it is today—one of the leading, credit-focused investment platforms in the market. Working collaboratively with our talented investment team, we are not only able to grow the firm, but most importantly we are able to meet the investment objectives of our clients.”

Marcoz has more than 25 years of institutional sales and marketing experience. Prior to becoming a Partner at Napier Park, Marcoz was a Managing Director and Senior Relationship Manager responsible for covering large public pension plans and insurance clients and she will continue as a senior leader on the client services team. Marcoz is also the founder of the Napier Park Women’s Network which hosts events, offers mentorship and encourages the efforts and inclusion of women in the structured credit industry. Prior to Napier Park, Marcoz worked as an institutional and Ultra-High-Net-Worth coverage officer at Wachovia Securities and the Citi Investment Bank. She started her career at Citi in Sydney (Australia) where she was recruited as a management associate.

Marcoz holds an MBA (cum laude) from Neuchatel University in Switzerland.
